Looking back at my own experience with Minecraft, it's so easy to see why people were so obsessed with it. The game was all about survival. It was about building a new life out of nothing. Things that would make you successful weren't free; they required you to work hard for them. But they were worth the wait, because it would mean you'd gather more items over time, and then you could make your house bigger or better fortified. I have had Roblox for about 6 months now, and I am sort of over it. However, I really love the game. It is a creative game where you can design an avatar and have a house to decorate. I just wanted to write this because I know there are a lot of people who have been searching for my story on Roblox. Everyone has their own opinions on the game, but as soon as I found out that my parents were coming to visit me on Friday, I found out that they were going to be seeing where I spend most of my time playing games online: namely <https://www.roblox.com/>.
