According to the ROBLOX website, there are over 15 million registered and active players. Like many other user-generated content sites for young children, ROBLOX encourages users to be safe and responsible on its site. It also has a moderation system that allows members of the community to report profiles and comments that may be inappropriate or offensive. Parents can also choose what games their kids can play, or even disable chat so other players can't talk to their child. ROBLOX has also introduced a new feature called "Guardians" which works like parental controls on most software. It allows players to set a game rating they are comfortable with, so that they can choose between games.

ROBLOX has created a number of recurring events over the years. On October 23, 2021 Robotcrab had announced a new way for Roblox users to make money by selling virtual items in the Roblox catalog: the "Builders Club". Players use Roblox's in-game currency, called ROBUX, to purchase items which they can sell to other players.

Her parents did not approve of this decision and they started a petition on Change.org to get their daughter unbanned back on Roblox. They stated that her ban would be a violation of their privacy rights as well as an infringement upon her civil rights, as a minor. The family requested that Roblox reverse its ban of Arielle and instead give her a warning to stop future harassment, which she committed while playing "Minecraft". The petition received more than 50,000 signatures in less than 12 hours. However, it was then reported by users that the petition had been removed from the website soon after it began. As soon as the petition was received by Roblox, it was announced that her account would be reviewed and further action would be taken in response to how she had "been conducting herself online".
