One of the reasons why free robux users are falling victim of hacking and account deletion is because they let their friends know that they have free robux promo codes. They share these codes and often forget the fact that they should never ever share any information that could possibly help someone hack or delete your Roblox account. If you feel like you would like to tell a friend about this, but just do it privately, just make sure to use some sort of security when checking the inbox for messages. You should also make sure that you do not use the same username or password on any other website or accounts.

Some people just find it hard to see how many Robux they will actually make from their personal game development because the process is difficult and lengthy that the estimated amount of time it takes just for 1 point can be up to 6 months.

On December 20, 2021, a 12-year-old girl in Las Vegas named Arielle De La Rosa was banned from Roblox for what she believed was a "harassment campaign". She had created a character named Emily Roe that she used to bully another player online. The bullying campaign went on for over a year until it came to her parents' attention and they contacted Roblox about it. The harassment campaign violated the Child Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA). Her parents encouraged her to create a character named "Emily Roe" and they hoped that this would help her get unbanned from Roblox.
