While this may be true for some cases, there are some individuals who make these videos just to deceive users into thinking that they have found a way in which they can get free robux for their accounts. This is usually done by editing the time stamp, making it look like they have gained several thousand dollarsâ€™™ worth of free robux within a short period of time.

For example, Jailbreak offers a premium feature which allows players to purchase more life points. As the game is free, there is no way for them to gain XP in the traditional sense. Instead of implementing XP via cash or coin drop-rates (as would be done in a game that relies on premium features), they offer more life points as a way to make it easier for players if they choose to purchase them. Free games also don't have an option of offering premium features that modify their economies or XP systems. Therefore, they usually offer only the default system as an option for non-Premium members.

Her parents did not approve of this decision and they started a petition on Change.org to get their daughter unbanned back on Roblox. They stated that her ban would be a violation of their privacy rights as well as an infringement upon her civil rights, as a minor. The family requested that Roblox reverse its ban of Arielle and instead give her a warning to stop future harassment, which she committed while playing "Minecraft". The petition received more than 50,000 signatures in less than 12 hours. However, it was then reported by users that the petition had been removed from the website soon after it began. As soon as the petition was received by Roblox, it was announced that her account would be reviewed and further action would be taken in response to how she had "been conducting herself online".
